SUMMER IN HAVANA

We are on our way to normalized relations with our beloved Cuban neighbors, so wet your whistle and gear up for a sun-soaked, history-filled escape to the island still romantically enamored with tradition.

CLASSIC CUBANS 12

Cuba Libre - Prichard's Crystal Rum, Coca-Cola Classic Mexican Soda, Lime
A combination of the United States' iconic Coca-Cola and Cuba's proud rum tradition, the Cuba Libre was created c. 1900 as a celebration of the United States' victory over Spain in Cuba during the Spanish-American war.

Hemingway Daiquiri - Crusoe White Rum, Grapefruit, Maraschino, Lime
Named for Ernest Hemingway during his many stays in Havana at El Floridita, where he ordered his version of a daiquiri featuring grapefruit and maraschino, usually in doubles.

Mojito - Brugal Especial White Rum, Mint, Turbinado, Lime, Soda
Thought to be named after the African word mojo, meaning "Little Spell", this drink has enthralled the globe with its simplicity and fresh taste for centuries.

Old Cuban Cocktail - Cruzan Aged Rum, Lime, Mint, Bitters, Blanc de Blanc
Created by Audrey Sanders of the Pegu Club, this spin on the classic mojito has depth and elegance that belie its simplicity.

El Presidente - Crusoe Spiced Rum, Lillet, Cointreau
El Presidente became popular during the prohibition years amongst American travelers to Cuba; apocryphally named for President Menocal (1912-1920).

Rum Collins - Crusoe Spiced Rum, Lemonade, Soda
First seen on the silver screen in the hand of Sean Connery in "Thunderball", this cocktail marries the classic Tom Collins with organic white rum and Collins' mixer for a light and refreshing quencher.
